10. HEALTH & SAFETY POLICY

Returnable Packaging Services Limited (RPS) operate a collection, repair and return service of transit packaging used by commercial enterprises including the Chemical, Pharmaceutical, Medical and Food industries. Through a need to help protect employee and public health and safety alongside the environment, RPS issues the following policy statement:

POLICY STATEMENT

RPS has a legal responsibility under section 2 of the Health & Safety at Work etc Act 1974 to safeguard its employees and the public at large so far as is reasonably practicable, from injury, nuisance or risk to health from any operations associated with its business. The company makes the same commitment towards protecting the environment.

RPS's policy is that the fulfilling of its legal responsibilities represents the minimum level of achievement in respect of health and safety at work.

A copy of the Health & Safety Policy will be made available to all employees, contractors and visitors and will be displayed on the RPS HSE notice board and in the HSE Management System file. Directors and Managers will ensure that employees understand and comply with the requirements.

RPS knows their obligation to consult with employees who may be affected as a result of any major changes in work operations or with the introduction of new equipment. The "Consultation with Employee Regulations" is satisfied. RPS complies with the "Safety Representative and Safety Committees Regulations 1977" including where appropriate, the setting up of a Safety Committee.

The company will seek professional advice on matters relating to health, safety and training via an external health and safety consultancy when required.

RPS Directors and Managers ask for, and expect, the full co-operation of all employees as detailed in sections 7 and 8 of the Health and Safety at Work etc Act 1974 in assisting them to achieve the objective of this policy. Employees are encouraged to put forward any improvements in H&S.

In particular we aim to improve overall health and safety and minimize incidents and / or accidents as part of our continuous improvement programme. These objectives and targets will be regularly reviewed, established and maintained through the company's Health, Safety & Environmental Management System to ensure continual improvements and prevention of incidents and / or accidents.

We aim to identify, develop and train employees designated to perform tasks which may have an impact on the environment or health and safety and also develop an overall health & safety awareness. These skills are provided to develop the company's own awareness in controlling its working area.

If necessary, financial resources will be made available for the continual improvement of health & safety and the wellbeing of employees, contractors and visitors. RPS intend to develop and maintain open relationships with the local public, local authorities, neighbouring companies, customers and suppliers and will inform them of our intentions to implement a Health, Safety & Environmental Management System to encourage a safe working environment.

By adopting this Health & Safety Policy and through monitoring and continuous improvements, RPS intends to make a commitment to the well-being of its employees and a safe working environment.

14. CUSTOMER RELATIONSHIP POLICY

Returnable Packaging Services Limited (RPS) recognises the importance of the relationship it shares with all partnerships. This policy sets out our efforts to promote a productive working partnership in order to enhance our commitment to our clients.

RPS currently operates the following procedures:

- We have procedures in place to ensure our customer service levels are maintained at a high level at all times.
- Regular review meetings are arranged between RPS and its clients in order to measure customer satisfaction and developments. This is to ensure that all customer requirements are being met or exceeded.
- Regular review meetings are arranged between RPS and its contractors and suppliers to ensure that the highest level of customer service is being provided.
- We operate a non-conformance procedure in order to log any complaints and non-conformances in order for the Company to correct and prevent further occurrences.

In the event that a customer is displeased with the RPS service:

- A non-conformance will be raised to establish the reasons why RPS has not met the customer requirements.
- The relevant members of RPS staff will be informed with immediate corrective actions decided upon.
- Once the issue has been resolved, the team will then take no longer than 7 working days to agree upon preventative actions to ensure the issue does not reoccur.
- A will be set up with the customer to review the preventative actions.
- If an issue reoccurs RPS will take all available and reasonable actions to make sure a further reoccurrence does not happen. At all times the customer will be informed to ensure transparency of any decisions and changes to procedures that have been made.

In the event that a contractor or supplier does not perform to the level expected by RPS:

- A non-conformance will be raised to establish the reasons behind why the expectations of RPS have not been met.
- RPS will work closely with the contractor or supplier to resolve any issues and determine the best preventative actions.
- KPIs will be monitored by RPS to measure the performance of contractors and suppliers. These KPIs will ensure that the overall service delivered by RPS is at the highest level possible.
- This policy is fully supported by the management and all members of staff. The policy will be monitored and reviewed annually.

15. EQUAL OPPORTUNITIES POLICY

We aim to promote equal opportunities, eliminate discrimination and eliminate harassment through the following:

- Opposing all forms of unlawful and unfair discrimination.
- All employees (whether part time, full time or temporary) will be treated fairly and with respect.
- All vacancies will be advertised internally and externally simultaneously.
- Selection for employment, training or other benefit will be on the basis of aptitude and ability. All selection and rejection decisions will be recorded.
- All employees will be helped and encouraged to develop their full potential and the talents and resources of individuals will be fully utilised to maximise the efficiency of the organisation.
- All employees have a legal and moral obligation not to discriminate and to report incidents of discrimination against any individual or group of individuals to the senior management team.

Our commitment:

- To create an environment in which individual differences and the contributions of all our staff are recognised and valued.
- Every employee is entitled to be part of an environment that promotes dignity and respect to all. No form of intimidation, bullying or harassment will be tolerated.
- Training, development and progression opportunities are available to all staff.
- Equality is good management practise and makes sound sense.

Breaches of our equality policy will be regarded as misconduct and could lead to disciplinary proceedings and termination of employment.

- This policy is fully supported by the management and all members of staff.
- The policy will be monitored and reviewed annually.

16. QUALITY POLICY

Returnable Packaging Services Limited (RPS) strives to be perceived by our customers, contractors and suppliers as a company whose products, services and support consistently exceed those of our competitors.

Our policy is to provide our products and services of the highest quality which fully satisfy our customer's requirements. Total quality management will be a permanent feature within our business. It will be implemented, monitored, nurtured and maintained by having a quality improvement programme, which will be achieved through our staff working together for success.

The aim is to ensure that:

- All systems and procedures will be designed to ensure that customer requirements will be fully understood and satisfied.
- All of our contractors and suppliers will be scrutinised to ensure the highest level of performance is given measured through KPIs.
- Achievement of the required quality standard is a core responsibility of all RPS employees. Each member of staff is given the opportunity to contribute to the continuous improvement programme. Training or development will be implemented if required to meet quality standards.
- In accordance to our procedures all activities will be planned and based upon minimising risk and eliminating errors.
- We will develop our employee's skills and increase their contribution through effective leadership, motivation and training.
- We will comply with our customer's quality requirements through the effective implementation of our procedures well as continually improving their effectiveness.
- All performance targets will be set with SMART objectives and measurements to ensure we establish and communicate meaningful results and drive continuous improvement.

It is a responsibility of all employees to understand and conform to the requirements of the Company's quality policy and to its systems and procedures.

- This policy is fully supported by the management and all members of staff.
- The policy will be monitored and reviewed annually.

17. ANIT-BRIBERY AND CORRUPTION POLICY

Returnable Packaging Services Limited (RPS) recognises the importance of an ethical framework within our business and that all employees aspire to work in line with the following principles. This policy sets out the company's procedures in relation to bribery and corruption.

RPS understands and recognises the following on bribery and corruption:

- Acts of bribery or corruption are designed to influence an individual in the performance of their duty and incline them to act in a way that a reasonable person would consider to be dishonest in the circumstances.
- Bribery can be defined as offering, promising or giving a financial (or other) advantage to another person with the intention of inducing or rewarding that person to act or for having acted in a way which a reasonable person would consider improper in the circumstances.

Corruption is any form of abuse of entrusted power for private gain and may include, but is not limited to, bribery.

- Bribes are not always a matter of handing over cash. Gifts, hospitality and entertainment can be bribes if they are intended to influence a decision.
- Under the Bribery Act 2010, bribery by individuals is punishable by up to ten years' imprisonment and / or an unlimited fine. If the firm is found to have taken part in the bribery or is found to lack adequate procedures to prevent bribery, it too could also face an unlimited fine.
- A conviction for a bribery or corruption related offence would have severe reputational and/or financial consequences for the firm.

RPS does not and will not tolerate bribery or corruption in any form. RPS upholds this policy by:

- Prohibiting the offering, giving, solicitation or the acceptance of any bribe or corrupt inducement whether in cash or in any other form, in order to:
 - Gain any commercial, contractual or regulatory advantage.
 - Gain any personal advantage for individuals or anyone connected with the individual.

This policy is not intended to prohibit the following practises provided that they are appropriate:

- Normal hospitality.
- Fast tracking a process which is available to all on the payment of a fee.
- Providing resources to assist a person or company to make a decision more effectively provided it is for this purpose only.

17. CONTINUED

It may not always be a simple matter to determine whether a possible course of action is appropriate. If you are in any doubt as to whether a possible act might be in breach of this policy or the law, the matter should be taken up with the management.

The firm will investigate thoroughly any actual or suspected breach of this policy, or the spirit of this policy. Employees found to be in breach of this policy may be subject to disciplinary action.

RPS recognises the following areas in which bribery and corruption could occur:

- Excessive gifts, entertainment and hospitality.
- Facilitation payments to secure or accelerate business procedures.
- Reciprocal agreements unless they are legitimate business arrangements.
- Actions by third parties that RPS may be held responsible for.
- Record keeping ensuring all aspects of the business is transparent and not exploited to conceal bribes or corruption.

It is a responsibility of all employees to understand and conform to the requirements of the company's anti-bribery and corruption policy and to its systems and procedures.

- This policy is fully supported by the management and all members of staff.
- The policy will be monitored and reviewed annually.

18. CHILD LABOUR POLICY

Context

This policy is based on RPS's commitment to eliminate the practice of child labour.

Scope

This policy applies to all persons working for RPS or on our behalf in any capacity, including all employees, agency workers, volunteers, contractors, and suppliers.

Purpose

RPS does not employ any person below the age of eighteen years. RPS prohibits the use of child labour and forced compulsory labour anywhere within the business. No employee is made to work against their will or work as bonded/forced labour, or subject to coercion of any related work.

The implementation of this policy is the responsibility of all staff but with particular responsibility on the managers and directors who must not permit minors to work on the premises. Records of all employees, including age are maintained by RPS and are open to verification by any authorised person or relevant statutory body.

RPS has zero tolerance of this policy. If we find that any individuals or organisations working on behalf of RPS have breached this policy, RPS will ensure that appropriate action is taken.

19. MODERN SLAVERY POLICY

Context

Modern slavery is a term used to encompass slavery, servitude and forced and compulsory labour, child labour and human trafficking. Human trafficking is where a person arranges or facilitates the travel of another person with a view to that person being exploited. Modern slavery is a crime and a violation of fundamental human rights.

Scope

This policy applies to all persons working for RPS or on our behalf in any capacity, including all employees, agency workers, volunteers, contractors, and suppliers.

Purpose

RPS is committed to ensuring there is no modern slavery or human trafficking in any part of the business. Our anti-slavery policy reflects our commitment to acting ethically and with integrity in all our business relationships to ensure slavery and human trafficking is not taking place.

We have a zero-tolerance approach to slavery and human trafficking and expect all our employees, suppliers, partners, and contractors to comply with our values.

If we find that any individuals or organisations working on behalf of RPS have breached this policy, RPS will ensure that appropriate action is taken.
